18 KILLED IN RACE RIOT

THE TIMELY ARRIVAL OF TROOPS STOPPED TROUBLE AND PREVENTED MORE BLOODSHED.

200 CITIZENS ARMED

Riots Direct Result of the Killing of a Negro by White Farmer.

Palestine, Tex., July 30.—At least eighteen negroes were killed, numerous others are reported to have been injured and several white men were probably injured in a racial clash between Elkhart and Slocum, fifteen miles south of here, Friday night and Saturday. It was first reported that four white men had been killed, but late Saturday night this report was denied. The arrival of troops is believed to have stopped the trouble and further bloodshed.

The deputy sheriff of Houston county is reported fatally wounded. In this afternoon's fight a dozen men were injured on both sides. Hundreds of heavily armed citizens hurried to the scene of the riots today from Crockett, Palestine and adjacent towns, and are under the leadership of Capt. Reese Fowler, who fought under Estrada in the Nicaragua revolution. There are 500 armed whites in the field, but the negroes outnumber them, and they are also heavily armed. A majority of the blacks are carrying guns, but many are armed with scythes and pitchforks. They are well generated and seemed determined to hold out, in which case a bloody battle is inevitable, as the whites have sworn to drive them out of Anderson county if they do not lay down their arms, surrender and turn over their leaders for arrest.

The riots are a direct result of the killing of a negro farmer by James Alvord, a white farmer. Alvord attempted to collect a debt, the negro refused to pay and the shooting followed.

One report tonight from Elkhart says 50 negroes were killed, but it is unconfirmed. Palestine is under martial law tonight. All saloons are closed and hardware merchants are forbidden to sell arms or ammunition. Palestine citizens are still going to Elkhart. It is learned from Jacksonville that 200 armed citizens will go from there tonight to aid the white men. Scores of whites are leaving the village and all the towns in this section, for Elkhart, and to all appearances the call to arms has been sounded.

Palestine is quiet tonight, but there is some uneasiness because many homes are unprotected, as the men are at Elkhart. There have been no disturbances, here, however, so far. Communications with the scene of the riots is extremely difficult, many wires having been cut.

Three state rangers and the Marshall company of Texas National guards reached the scene at 7 o'clock tonight.

MAN AND WIFE JAILED FOR DRUNKENNESS

Sheriff Smith placed a man and a woman in the county jail last night. To all appearances the pair were drunk, though the man claimed the woman was suffering from heart weakness. His statement as to the woman's suffering from heart trouble was verified by a physician who said whiskey was causing the trouble and it would get alright when the booze died away.

Both parties arrested were white and claimed to be man and wife. The man claims to be living in a tent near town and is engaged in hauling sand. After resting in the county jail last night the two were brought before police judge, C. A. Powers, the man was fined $10.50 and the woman was allowed to go on good behavior.

Probably Fatally Hurt.

Sapulpa, Okla., July 31.—I. B. Sharp 25 years old, was perhaps fatally injured when run over by a freight train in the Frisco yards here this evening. Sharp, who was employed as an air man, was coupling air on a freight train when a switch engine backed into the string of cars. Both of Sharp's legs were cut off and his arm was crushed. He is unmarried.

CRIPPEN AND ACCESSORY

ARRESTED ON BOAT AND IDENTIFICATION IS POSITIVE.

GIRL DRESSED AS A BOY

Both Will Be Taken Back to London For Trial.

Ft. Point, Quebec, July 31.—Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel Clare Leneve, his stenographer, who fled from London, after the disappearance of Belle Elmore, the doctor's wife, were arrested here today aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose at the command of Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard.

The identification of the long-sought fugitives on board the fog-shrouded steamer by the detective who had traced them across the Atlantic, landed in gaule of the Montrose, was the culmination of one of the most sensational flights of recent criminal annals.

Locked in Staterooms.

Accompanied by the Canadian officers, Dew boarded the vessel at 8:30 o'clock this morning and fifteen minutes later both man and girl were locked in their staterooms, Crippen broken in spirit but mentally relieved by the relaxed tension; the girl, garbed in boy's clothes, sobbing hysterically. They were no longer "Rev. John Robinson and son," as booked from Antwerp on July 20.

After brief delay the Montrose continued her fifty-mile journey up the river toward Quebec, where a jail awaited the pair.

Crippen is charged with the murder of an unknown woman, believed to have been his actress wife.

The girl is held as an accessory.

Back to England Thursday.

In charge of Inspector Dew, they will be taken back to England for trial on the Royal Line steamship Royal Gorge, leaving Quebec on Thursday next.

Disguised as Pilots.

All wore the garb of pilots and over his florid face Inspector Dew had pulled a pilot's visored cap to hide his features from the man he sought. He did not wish Crippen to recognize him before he could approach and take advantage of the only avenue of escape—suicide. Four sailors quickly rowed the tender alongside the Montrose and Dew and his companions stepped aboard.

Crippen was standing near the rail talking with Dr. Stuart the ship's surgeon, and attempting to appear calm. But that he was nervous was indicated by his furtive glances and his remark to Dr. Stuart:

"There are three pilots coming aboard," he nervously said. "Is not that unusual?"

The surgeon did not reply, but kept his eyes on the strangers who walked rapidly toward them.

"Crippen, I want you," said Inspector Dew quietly as he approached. The dentist recoiled involuntarily as he recognized the man who addressed him, then the blood left his face and his breath came short and fast, and he gurgled incoherently. As he was being led away to the captain's cabin, whence he was transferred later to his own stateroom, he said gratefully:

"Thank God! The suspense is over and I am glad."

Crippen's arrest accomplished, Dew hurried to Miss Leneve's stateroom, where he found her, still dressed as "John Robinson Jr.," on the verge of nervous breakdown.

Her appearance when confronted by the detective and told she was under arrest was pitiable. All the control she had fought so hard to retain throughout the voyage left her. She cried out hysterically and became so faint that restoratives were necessary. She in her room and restored to woman's dress she was closely guarded as the vessel continued its journey for fear that she would take her life or collapse utterly.

ROBT. E. LEE KEEPS HIS PLACE

EFFORTS BY G. A. R. TO OUST STATUE OF GREAT CONFEDERATE GENERAL.

ALL THAT WAS BEST

Wickersham's Opinion Pays Tribute to Lee—Uniform to Stay.

Beverly, Mass., July 31.—President Taft has approved without comment an opinion by Attorney General Wickersham to the effect that there is no provision of law by which the statue of General Robert E. Lee in Confederate uniform, can be removed from Statuary hall in the capitol at Washington.

In addition to deciding the question on a purely legal basis, Mr. Wickersham argues the matter from an ethical point of view, declaring that Lee has come to be regarded as typifying all that was best in the cause to which he gave his services and the most loyal and unflinching acceptance of the complete overthrow of the cause. That the state of Virginia should designate him for that place in Statuary hall, as one illustrious for distinguished military service, the attorney general declares, is only natural and warranted under the reading of the law.

Mr. Wickersham's opinion was called forth by protests to the president from the department of New York Grand Army of the Republic. In his opinion, addressed to and approved by the president, Attorney General Wickersham says:

"It is now 45 years since the civil war was closed. Robert E. Lee has come to be generally regarded as typifying not only all that was best in the cause to which he gave his services, but also the most loyal and unflinching acceptance of the complete overthrow of the cause. That the state of Virginia should designate him as one illustrious for distinguished military service is therefore natural; that his statue should be clothed in the Confederate uniform thus eloquently testifying to the fact that a magnanimous country has completely forgiven an unsuccessful effort to destroy the union, and that that statue should be accepted in the national statuary hall as the symbol of the acceptance without misgivings of a complete surrender and a renewed loyalty, should surely provoke no opposition.

"Therefore, under the existing law, I am of the opinion that no legal objection can be made to the placing in Statuary Hall of Washington Robt. E. Lee, clothed in the Confederate uniform."

Miss Mary Kate Baker has returned from Roff and Sulphur where she has been visiting friends for the past month.

RESCUE SOCIETY BEING FORMED

ORGANIZATION WILL BE PERFECTED BY NEXT WEDNESDAY.

CHARACTER BUILDERS

Name of Organization Which Is Already Being Felt in This City.

"Character Builders" is the name of a ladies' rescue society which is in process of formation in Ada at present. It will be composed of some forty or fifty women who desire to see Ada a city of righteousness. The prime object is to look after the white slave traffic and nip it in the bud in this town, though they will work in every way for charity and the uplifting of humanity.

The organization is hardly perfected, as yet, the constitution and by-laws will be adopted Wednesday. Notwithstanding this, the society is already a factor for good and is making a few of the undesirables feel shaky.

ing a few of the undesirables feel shaky.

On yesterday two of the ladies accompanied Deputy W. B. Adair to arrest one M. M. Williams who pretended to run a restaurant on north Broadway. The charge upon which he was arrested is vagrancy, but there is a probability of getting him for white slavery. Three or four girls have been taken from his hold out during the past few days, and if sufficient evidence can be produced the "Character Builders" will give him something warm in the courts. Yesterday on default of making bail he was committed to jail to await trial on Wednesday.

HE JUMPED QUICKER THAN THE RATTLER

Kenton, Ok., July 29.—Jack Elliston while out pluming near Endree, experienced a narrow escape from being bitten by a rattler. The rattler's intention was vicious enough but his judgment on distance was a fraction off. Elliston was busy picking plums when a boy shouted, "Look what's on your leg." He looked down and found a rattler about two feet long hanging on his pants leg. He jumped over the plum bush so quick that he left the reptile squirming on the ground. The snake had struck him, fastening his fangs on his clothing and Elliston was not aware of his danger until the lad shouted.

WIMBISH HAS MADE GOOD

Probably the most important office in our county government is that of County Attorney. As the official legal adviser and counselor of the various county officials, he should be a man learned in the law, experienced in life and possessing a rare quality of good sound judgment and common sense. In short, he should be a safe counselor. Mr. Wimbish's tenure in the office of County Attorney, during his first term demonstrates beyond question no quibble to the unbiased mind that he "fills the bill" in this respect.

As the representative of the people in the enforcement of the law and in the trial of violators of the law in the court room the county attorney should be a man of unquestionable honor and integrity, unpurchased and unpurchable, a lawyer of ability, a prosecutor of skill and experience, a man of ceaseless efforts, untiring energy and fearless nature. Mr. Wimbish has been our County Attorney since statehood, during the stirring and trying times of the moulding of a new state and the making of a new county, and he has made good, and we know from trying him that he fills the bill in the last named respects.

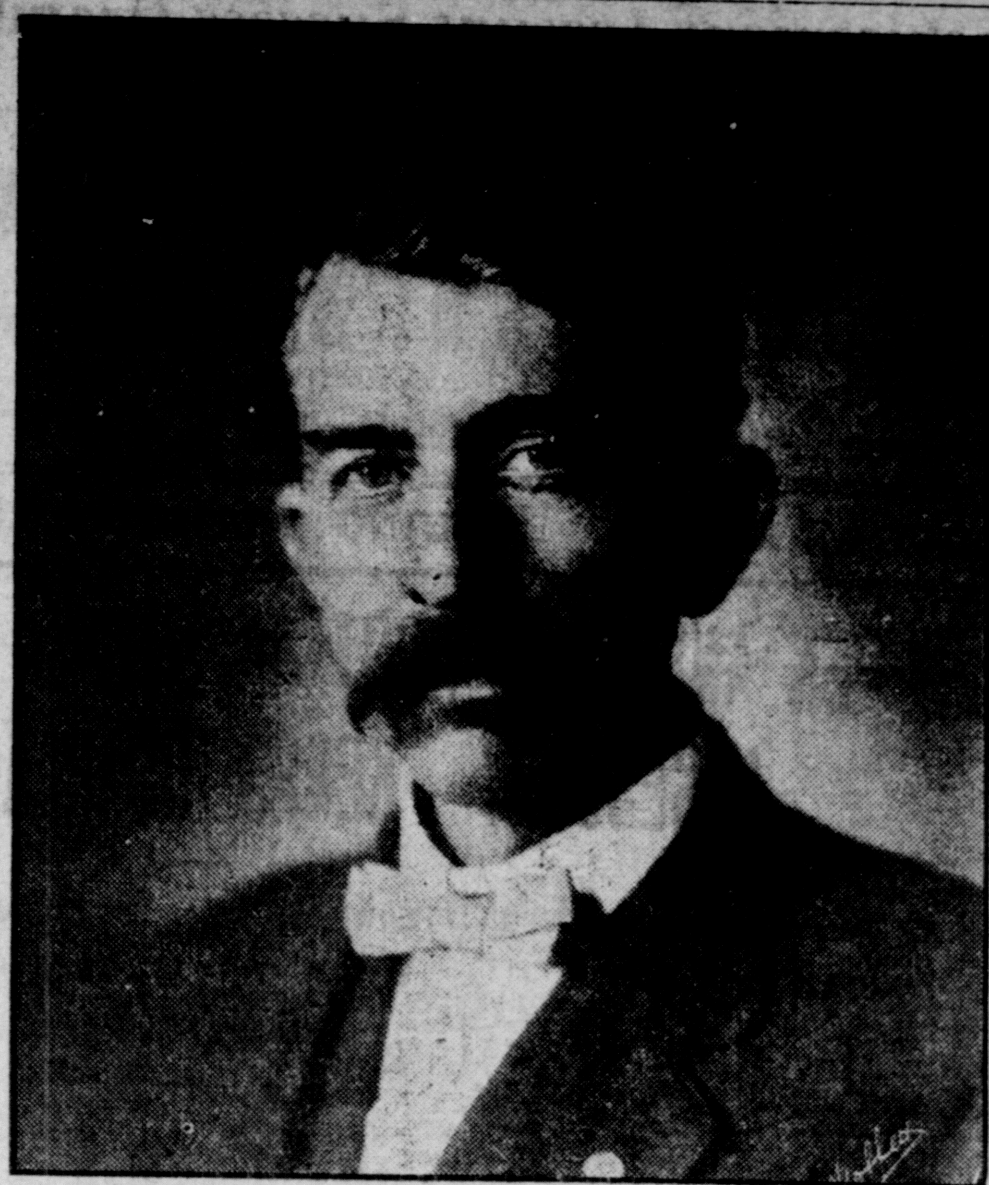

There are many criminal cases important to the people, now pending which have been brought under Wimbish's administration with which he only is thoroughly familiar. These cases will be tried after the expiration of the present term. Would it not be an unwise policy to put in a new man, a man heretofore untried, who knows nothing of these cases to take up this all important unfinished business? In other words, we are crossing the river now in the making of our new county and in bringing about desired conditions and would it not be a grave mistake to change horses while we are crossing the stream?

Since Mr. Wimbish has been in the office of County Attorney, he has had to face most trying and unusual conditions, and circumstances—conditions that tested the mettle of the man. It is not exaggeration to say that he has been called upon to deal with a veritable reign of crime—twenty homicides since statehood and lesser offences in proportion. At no time has he ever shirked the grave responsibility resting upon him, at no time has he ever failed to evince that splendid quality of courage and fearlessness, that rare element of sincerity and fidelity to duty, that vigorous and aggressive determination to vindicate the law which are so distinctly and pre-eminently characteristic of this man.

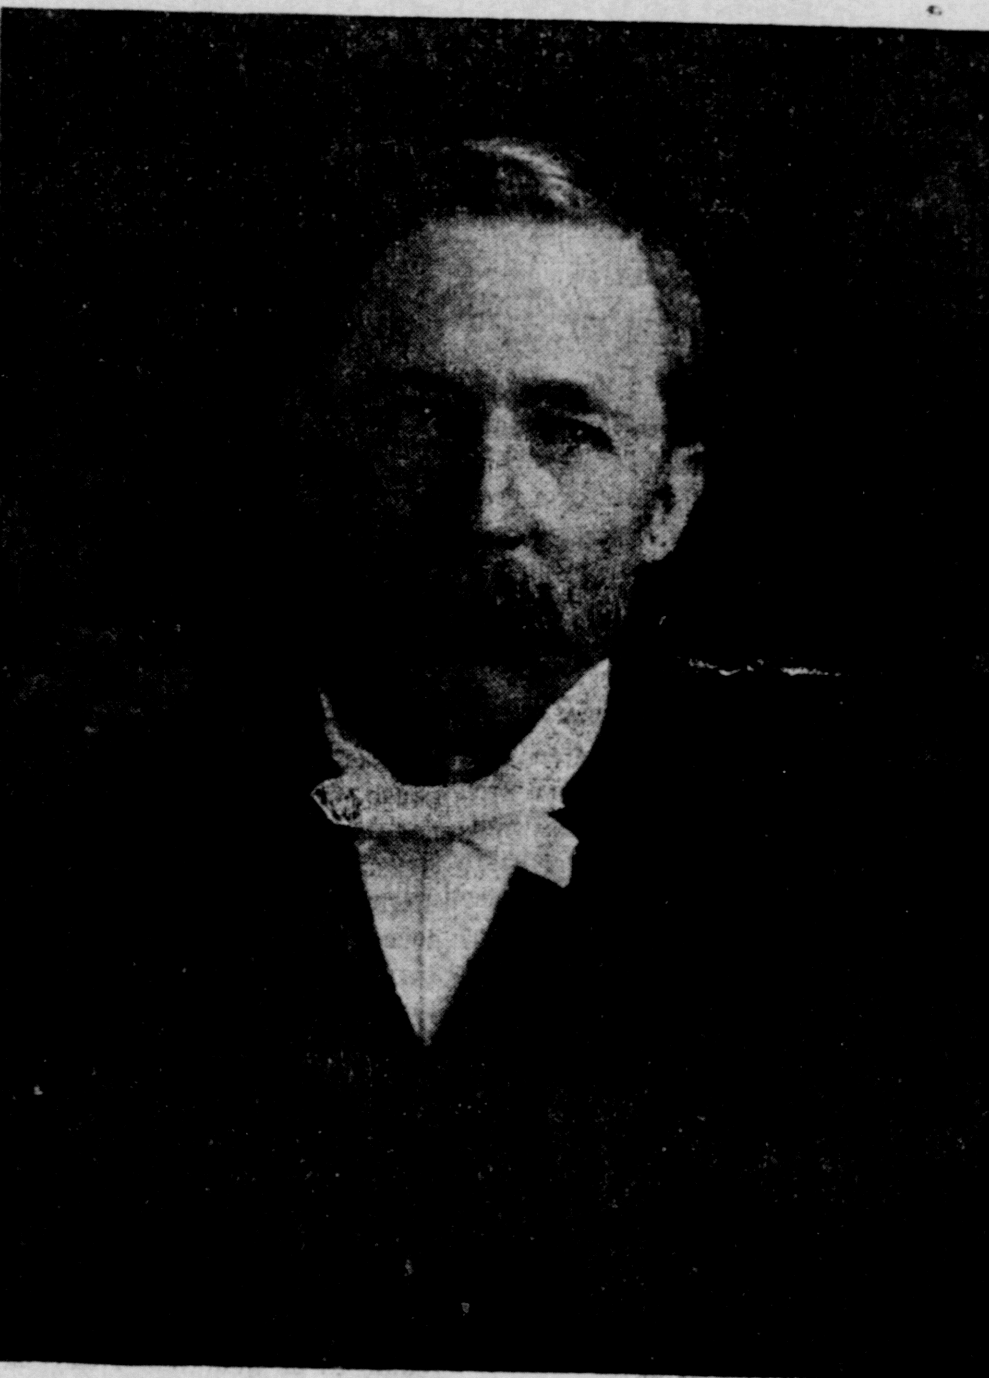

Mr. Wimbish may have made some mistakes—what man has not? But the few mistakes he has made pale into insignificance and vanish into nothingness when placed in the balance with the successes he has achieved the beneficial results he has accomplished and the good he has wrought in actualizing in this county conditions conducive to the safety and protection of the lives, the property and the homes of the people.

We believe the citizenship of this county realize these things. We believe they appreciate the good work Mr. Wimbish has done and that on the 2nd day of August they will justly reward him for his faithful efforts in their behalf by giving him the second term of office.

Many Negroes Will Lose Vote.
Tulsa, Okla., July 31.—Over 5,000 negroes who will be in attendance at the Oklahoma state freedman's reunion here Tuesday will lose their vote, owing to absence from their respective voting places. It is estimated that this lump vote of 5,000 would have gone solid against the "grandfather clause" and the fact that all will lose their vote will result in a still greater majority for the "grandfather cause."

Two of the three Candidates for Democratic nomination for Governor.

WIMBISH HAS MADE GOOD.

Who Said So: Signed Article by Robt. Roland, Candidate for County Attorney.

In the 28th issue of the Ada News I see that some one has said Wimbish has made good, it sounds like some talk I heard at Lula, once upon a time.

Let us apply the old adage consistency thou art a jewel, and see how these statements sound together.

If Mr. Wimbish, is re-elected the lives, the property and the homes of our people will be protected, in the same article is this language. Mr. Wimbish, has been our County Attorney since Statehood, also another that there has been 20 homicides since Statehood, does that sound like protection, evidently the gentlemen that got up the article did not read his piece after writing it or he would have blushed and said to himself that don't sound good to me.

Again I notice the statement that there are many cases now on the docket that will be tried after his term of office expires, with which Mr. Wimbish, alone is familiar, I wonder if the gentleman wishes to keep Mr. Wimbish, until he clears the docket of all the cases that shall be brought under his administration. WHY NOT SAY TO HIM KEEP THE JOB FOR GOOD, no the docket will never be in a better condition in my judgment for a change, than it is now, and it is my opinion that the law enforcement the people have had under the present County Attorney is not what the gentleman who wrote the article here referred to seems to think it is.

There is another reference that the County Attorney should be a man unpurchased and unpurchable, now we have never tried to buy a county attorney and don't intend to, if we should go into the market to buy one we would pass up the present county attorney knowing him as well as we do.

Voters I have never in any way hinted that Mr. Wimbish could be purchased.

I yet have too much confidence in my fellow man to think any one would sell his honor.

This same gentleman says in his article, that the county attorney should be a tried man or words to that effect, I wonder how long Mr. Wimbish, would have had to wait to prove himself if you had not given him this job three years ago.

Had he the experience then that the gentleman so proudly now boasts of, as to his enforcement of the law let the people say on the 2nd day of August, and if they still want to keep him I will still remain as ever ready to obey the law, if I am the choice of the people I will enforce the law, I can't get away from my duty by saying I don't know who it is that broke the law. Thanking the people to use good judgment and vote for the man you think will best serve you I remain yours,

(Signed) R. C. ROLAND,
Candidate for County Attorney.

Sherwood Hill Makes Statement.

Ada, Okla., Aug. 1, 1910.

To the Democratic Voters of Ada: If you believe that my record in Ada as a democrat, or believe that a man who has a family is entitled to consideration, I ask your support for the office of county weigher. Those of you who have known me since I came to Ada 10 years ago know that I have never held a position under the federal government, and have always voted and found on the firing line of democracy. I have served you as a city official in various ways during my residence here and am a small taxpayer in Ada. If you think my record is clean and I am worthy of support I ask it, promising to do my utmost to make you an efficient officer. Respectfully yours,
SHERWOOD HILL,
Candidate for County Weigher.

To the Voters of Ada and in the County.

I want to say to you that it was my desire in the outset of my campaign to see every voter I possibly could, but owing to the duties of this office and sickness in my family, I couldn't get out to see the voters like I wished to do.

I have been in this office nearly three years, and you have learned by this time whether I am qualified to fill such an important office as this is; also I was the first one to announce for this office, and if elected, I will endeavor to serve the people in my usual way and courtesy to all alike.

Thanking you in advance for your alike. Thanking you in advance for your support for me for your next County Treasurer of Pontotoc county, I am will to abide by your decision August 2nd.

50,000 MAJORITY PRE- DICTED FOR AMENDMENT

High Hope to Leaders—Branson Summarizes Arguments.

Oklahoma City, July 31.—The tireless campaign that Fred P. Branson, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, and his workers have waged for the adoption of the grandfather clause amendment to the constitution is nearing a close, and Chairman Branson looks confidently for a victory that will sufficiently reward his efforts. He has impressed upon hundreds of thousands of people of the state the necessity of forestalling negro domination in certain communities, and the farmer in the short-grass country, who perhaps sees a negro not more than one in a year, has been awakened by the call of his brother on the blacker side of the state. That the grandfather clause will carry by a majority of 50,000 is confidently expected.

Chairman Branson has sent the following message to representative citizens in every county of the state. It summarizes practically all there is in an argument for the adoption of the amendment.

"I had rather fight for Oklahoma to be and remain a white man's state than be governor. The success of the grandfather suffrage amendment demands the active work of the entire democratic organization and every white man and Indian available. Republican politicians are fighting it vigorously by stealth and false representations. The property values of twenty-five counties, the political stability, the safety of the white homes of Oklahoma demand its adoption in your county. Fred P. Branson."

Speaking Tonight.

The last shot of the campaign will be fired at the big tent on the corner of 13th and Broadway. Reuben M. Roddie, candidate for state senator, John P. Crawford, candidate for representative, and Robt. Wimbish, candidate for county attorney, will address the voters at the big tent tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Everybody come, ladies invited.

Tom D. McKeown, an old tar heel boy, a resident of Ada since the first and whose career in showing of character and professional ability entitles him to receive for District Judge nomination all the votes in Pontotoc County. It is thought to be a dead mortal ench that he will lead the ticket for District Judge though admitting that both Judges West and Rainey, one of whom must be defeated are elegant gentlemen.

JUDGE GALBRAITH'S RICHMOND

NOW COMES THE AFFIANT OF LAWFUL AGE AND DECLARES
THA COL. ROSS WILL COME UN-DER THE WIRE A NECK IN THE LEAD.

Judge Believes that Will Ebey's Wide
Acquaintance in the State, Together
With the Industrious and Effective
Work of His Friends Will Result in His Election as Insurance Commissioner.

Judge C. A. Galbraith, who has a state-wide clientele, and ordinarily when he visits away from home, is in such interest, returned from Oklahoma City this morning, where he went on strictly political mission. On account of Judge Galbraith's long residence in Oklahoma and the character of his association being with the more important political and professional influences in the past, there is probably no citizen of this county more capable of estimating correctly the probable political results in the primary elections tomorrow. Judge Galbraith is supporting Col. Leslie Ross for governor. When Judge Galbraith was attorney general of Oklahoma Territory, it is understood that he and Col. Ross, who was then the receiver of U. S. land office in this state were close political friends and have been ever since, and such regard continuing, naturally Judge is supporting Col. Ross for governor.

The News reporter meeting Judge Galbraith early after his return from Oklahoma City today, inquired of him as to the temperature of the political barometer in Oklahoma City and his estimate of the political results in tomorrow's election.

Of course it is an accepted political propriety, on the eve of an election, for one to indulge his political preferences by favorable prognostication in behalf of his candidate.

"I came in from headquarters this morning and have the latest dope on the election.

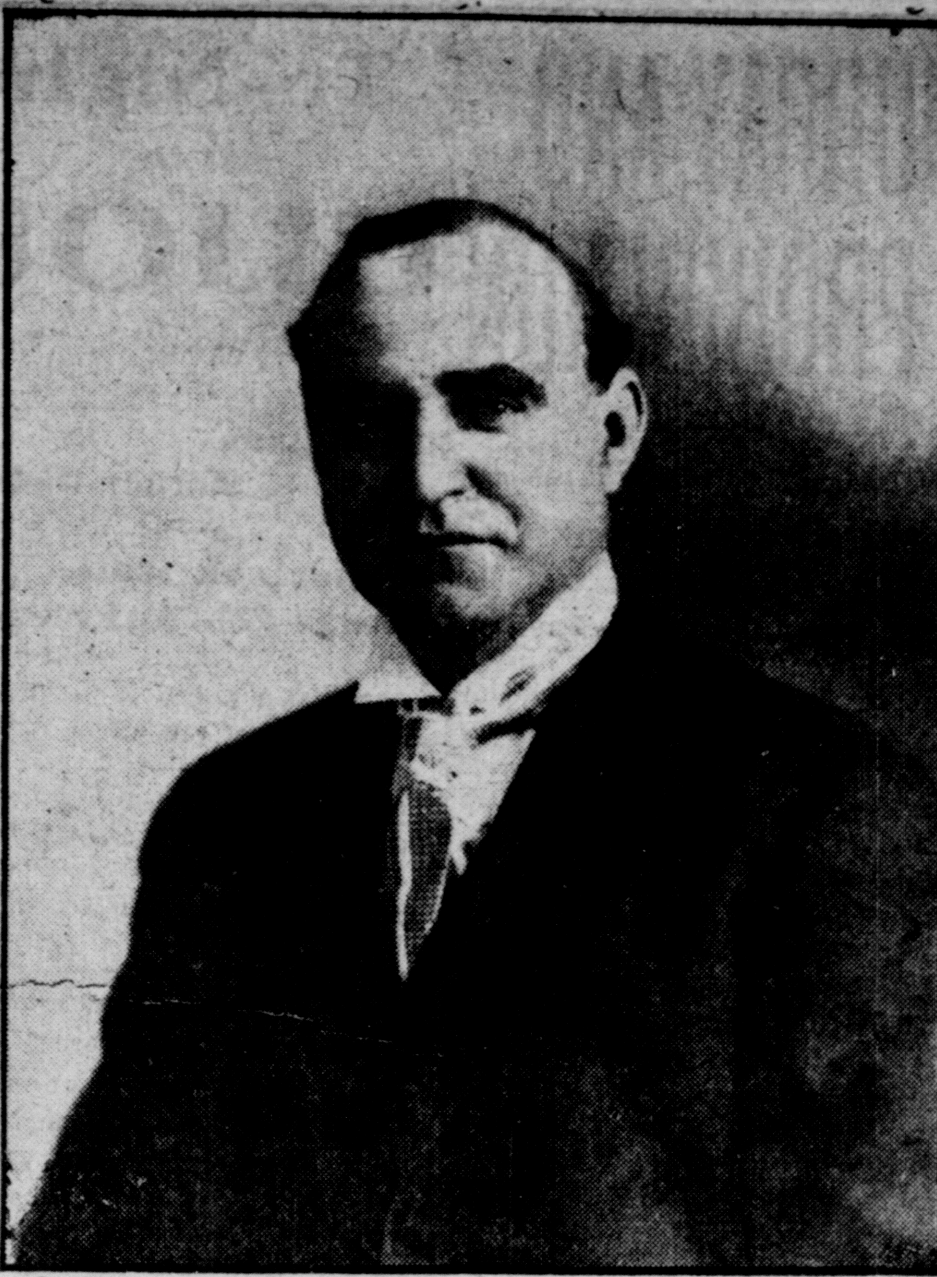

"There will probably not be over one hundred thousand democrat votes polled in the democratic primary tomorrow, and the successful candidate for governor will possibly received less than forty thousand votes.

"The governorship contest is truly a horse race, with all indications justifying the conclusions that Col. Ross will come under the wire a full neck in the lead, with Mr. Murray struggling for second place.

"I fully believe that Will Ebey will be nominated for Insurance Commissioner, although his name is not on the slate for that office sent out by the Haskell machine, and the insurance trust is making a desperate fight for Miles Laster, notwithstanding these strong forces and the array against him, I believe he is a safe winner.

Ebey has a wide acquaintance in the state and they and his friends at Ada have done very effective work for him; then Ebey is no novice in playing the political game himself, and I feel confident of his nomination on tomorrow."

Misses Ruth McClure, Dora Banard and Beulah Bruner have returned to their home in Francis after a pleasant visit with Miss Louise Roach.

UNION REVIVAL SERVICES CLOSED

THREE WEEKS OF SONG AND SERMON, RESULTING IN UN-TOLD GOOD FOR CITY
ENDED.

LARGEST CROWD LAST NIGHT

Over Two Thousand People Present,
Largest Congregation City
Ever Saw.

The three week's union revival services which have resulted in approximately one hundred conversions to Christianity, the harmonizing and unifying the churches of the city practically came to a close on last night.

Over two thousand people must have been present at the final benediction. Not a single foot of available room under the big tent was left unoccupied and the immense congregation stretched further around and into the streets than on any previous night. Rev. Hendrick remarked at the beginning of the services that it seemed a pity to leave a meeting of such unusual interest and expressed the hope that though the services would close, the revival would keep going.

The evangelist's parting words were full of sympathy and kindly advice for those recently converted. To them he recommended daily prayer in secret, saying it is impossible to walk aright without communication with God. Furthermore he would have them read the Bible daily as every reading makes a stronger christian. His further admonitions were to join the church of your choice and never indulge in any amusement that Christ would have to be excluded.

Speaking of his having to be separated shortly from them he said, "I could go without a pang if I could be satisfied that I would meet you in heaven."

The final sermon last night was on the religion of Jesus Christ.

"I am not ashamed of the religion of the gospel of Christ. Paul meant more when he said the gospel of Christ than he would have meant by saying the gospel of Jesus. When he said Christ he meant from the manger to the throne. I rejoice there is no story on earth as sweet as this, and yet it is the only story that can save."

The earnest evangelist painted the character and showed the example of Christ in all its loveliness, showed that there is nothing to be ashamed of; on the other hand every thing to inspire one to a higher life, nobler aspirations and greater sacrifice for humanity.

At the conclusion of the sermon the pastors of the several churches of the city were called upon to say in what respect the series of services had benefited the churches and the

TIPS On Choosing a Bank

Before lining up with a bank you should investigate several points in connection with it. In the first place ascertain whether or not the bank is prospering and developing along with the other lines of business of the community. If a bank's business isn't prospering something is wrong. In the second place are the officers and directors of the bank good, safe business men who deal squarely with the people? Watch out for a bank operated by tricksters or sharpers. In the third place do the directors really direct or are they merely figure heads? Look out for a bank whose directors know little or nothing about its business.

We want you to investigate this institution. We know its business is prospering and increasing right along. You know its officers and directors and we believe they are safe, honorable, business men. The directors of this bank say what shall and shall not be done. They pass upon the loans regularly and their instructions are carried out to the letter. This bank is what they make it—A Strong, Prospering, Conservative institution.

The First National Bank

city. All agreed the churches have been more nearly harmonized than ever before and that the good done for christianity and the city is well night incalculable; for homes, families, friends and neighbors, have felt the spirit and are drawn closer together.

Rev. Hendrick thanked very warmly every one who had in any manner contributed to the success of the meeting and spoke of his work here as being pleasant though hard.

It was agreed to have a twenty minutes service at the Frisco depot this morning just before the departure of the evangelists and their helpers for Texas.

From here the party goes to Collins county to a camp meeting for two weeks, thence to their home at Nashville for a short rest. Afterwards they go to Winona Lake, Ind., to attend the Summer Chautauqua Assembly, thence to Denver Colorado for two months, then back to Springfield, Mo., where they have held two meetings before, and, after a rest period they will begin the new year at Paris, Texas.

Child of Four Badly Hurt.

Hugo, Okla., July 31.—The four-year-old daughter of the Rev. Bird of Madill had her leg broken while boarding a train here Sunday morning. The little girl was given surgical attention and resumed her journey home with her parents. The manner in which the accident occurred is a mystery, but it is supposed that the child's leg was struck against the step as she was being assisted on to the platform of the coach. The train was held thirty minutes for the doctor to set the broken bone.

W. K. Chaney and family has returned home after a very pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Sulphur Springs, Tex. Mrs. Chaney's mother, Mrs. Garrison, and sister, Miss Octo Garrison returned home with them for a visit.

WILL BURN FRISCO RIGHT OF WAY

Prof. G. H. Chance of Fitzhugh now employed as chief fire guard agent for the Frisco stopped off in Ada today. He has under his supervision the burning of the Frisco right of way from Sapulpa to Sherman, Tex., and from Ardmore to Hope, Ark. As soon as the fire guards are plowed the burning will take place.

By hitching a crude oil burner to an engine the grass is burned while green very rapidly and thus the danger of fires later in the season is greatly reduced.

MURRAY AND PROHIBITION

Why Murray, Not Cruce Is Considered
Hope of Prohibition Cause in Oklahoma.

Do we want prohibition re-submitted? That is the question. If we do not, then let us see how the governor's election will effect this proposition.

Mr. Cruce says straight from the shoulder that he will resubmit this question if petitioned to do so. Mr. Murray says that he will not submit the question until the supreme court says the twenty-one year clause is unconstitutional. In other words, Mr. Cruce will submit this question as often as petitioned to do so. If Cruce is the nominee then, the prohibition fight is sure to come off during his administration, and just as sure to happen under a Ross administration. What then have the prohibition democrats to hope for but a continuation of the mean and bitter prohibition campaign. Some of you may take lightly another fight such as we had three years ago, but as one who was in the front, and bore the brunt of the fight in Pontotoc county, I want to declare to you that I don't want any more scraps like this one if I can possibly get away from it. Prohibition in Oklahoma has not had a fair test as yet. We have only had one set of officers to contend with the enforcement, and it is not fair to force the state into another bitter campaign at this time.

A vote for Mr. Cruce is a vote for re-submission, and you can't get away from it. We have his word for it. A vote for Mr. Murray is a vote against re-submission except the congressional demand in the Oklahoma constitution is declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. On account of the federal treaties with the Indian this will never occur.

Cruce Three Years Ago.

In the campaign three years ago, Mr. Cruce refused to declare in favor of state wide prohibition, and was defeated on account of it. This year he comes a little further, yet he agrees to do all the liquor interest ask him to do.

Murray's Pledge.

I shall submit this question of prohibition in the form of a constitutional amendment for its repeal only when the highest court in the land has said that the twenty-one year clause for the Indian Territory is unconstitutional. I shall veto any effort of the legislature to repeal this law as long as it is a part of the constitution, and I shall favor no modification thereof except to strengthen its enforcing provisions, and I shall enforce its provisions, using every power of the state government and, if necessary, the militia of the state.

This is as strong as language can make it, and this is the reason the majority members of the Anti-Saloon League's Executive Board have recommended to the prohibition democrats of the state to support Mr. Murray. Is this not sufficient reason for such endorsement? It seems to me that it is.

Consider the above when you are making up your ballot for governor. Think what another prohibition campaign will mean in Oklahoma. Think of the probability of the open saloon in Ada. Think on these things before you cast your vote on tomorrow.

With the knowledge in mind above related to, and contemplating what may happen with a resubmission governor for four years to come, I justify the endorsement of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon League. I sincerely hope and trust that those who put the cause of prohibition above personal considerations, will vote for Mr. Murray for governor.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Ada People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy, Bright's disease or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Ada proof:

M. J. Malone, Jr., 325 W. Sixteenth St., Ada, Okla., says: "The results I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from G. M. Ramsey's Drug Store, far exceeded my expectations. For five years I was a great sufferer from a weak back and other symptoms of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were highly colored and attended by a scalding sensation in passage. I had sharp, piercing pains through my loins and a constant ache in my hips that made me miserable. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills my kidneys have been performing their functions properly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

News Statement.

The County Election Commissioners were severely handy capped in the preparation of the copy for the election ballots on account of the lack of any sample ballot or any showing any where of precedent by which to print tickets.

While the members of the County Election Board were very conscientious in the discharge of their duties in the proper preparation of the copy for the election tickets, and it being known that the remuneration for the arduous services of preparing for an election is entirely inadequate, the News office desires it known that any error in connection with the printing of the ballots, and it is thought there were none, which can effect any embarrassment, is not attributable to the News printery.

But the public may know that what ever error was made was of only technical consequence and has been corrected.
